ANCIENT COINS

An Interesting Selection of Ancient Coins from the Collection of an English gentleman.

The following lots are sold alongside a detailed and annotated binder pertaining to the coins within each lot. Each binder is filled with handwritten index cards for each coin, tickets where applicable, photographs of the coins, provenances and values at time of purchase, and historical footnotes. Coins are listed in order as per the binder. An interesting and scholarly collection, an excellent opportunity for those beginning a collection, or as an accompanying piece to an established selection of coins from the ancient world. All are sold as seen.

When Thomas Percy, 2nd Earl of Northumberland, arrived in Dublin to take up the post of Lord Lieutenant of Ireland in 1763, he handed out £100 of these shillings (some 2000 coins) while parading through the streets; this secured his popularity with the people, and gave the coin its name. This anecdote has given rise to some confusion, with some assuming that the coins were produced solely for Percy to distribute. In reality, although the issue of shillings in 1763 was small – only £5,000's worth, equating to 100,000 coins – it was not quite as small as that assumption would suggest.

The so – called Habsburg jaw can be clearly seen in the portrait of Leopold on this coin, and indeed in many paintings and statues of the king. His jawline was said to have been so prominent that his subjects coined the name 'Leopold the Hogmouth' for their King. The jaw was most likely a result of generations of intermarriage within the royal family at the time, and thus became a distinctive family trait.

Dryden C. Colst. V.B. N.F. Winning Team 1902', 51.5mm., in fitted case, a wonderful 'New Sculpture' design and lettering, much as made, good very fine, very rare £80-120

The medal and shield were the innovation of Albert Henry George, 4th Earl Grey (1851-1917), politician who, in 1899, became Lord Lieutenant of Northumberland and later served as Governor General of Canada (1904-1911). The cataloguers have been unable to identify the medallist. The answer may be found in the Estate records of the Earls Grey and Lords Howick held by the University of Durham, which includes 'Conditions for competition for 4th Earl Grey's challenge shield for rifle shooting'.

712. The Royal Mint, End of Production at Tower Hill, 1975, a cast silver medal by Robert Elderton, named on edge to "D. R. COOPER 1937-1964", 54mm., wt. 60.07gms. Diaghilev's 'Ballets Russes' was formed in 1909. However, this medal relates to the 'Original Ballet Russe', previously the 'Ballet Russe de Monte Carlo', formed in 1931 by René Blum and Colonel Wassily de Basil. The medal probably features Léonide Massine (1896-1979) and Irina Baronova (1919-2008). The medal, a companion for Devreese's more famous 'Pastorale', is sometimes described as depicting Anna Pavlova, however this is unlikely since she had died in January 1931.

718. Dance, Scotland, engraved silver award 'as best dancer of Highland Fling', 1st April 1870, 'won by J. Ovenstone', scrolled border, suspension loop and ring and brooch mount, 45mm., very fine £50-80

729. Sport, Olympic Games, IX Olympiad, Amsterdam, 1928, uniface bronze plaquette, by Chris van der Hoef (1875–1933), signed (engraved) with his CHJ monogram, head of an athlete l., engraved legend, VAINQUEUR, 133.5mm., the reverse with 'lugs' for mounting, much as made, extremely fine £80-120

Chris van der Hoef competed in the Olympic Games Art (Sculpture – medals and plaquettes) Competition, winning the silver medal, in a field of 23, with a medal entitled Médaille pour les Jeux Olympiques 1928. The cataloguers can only speculate that 'Vainquer' was actually entered in the competition, but it is worth noting that a medal of that title was entered by the Belgian medallist Pierre de Soete. The Olympic participants' medal was the work of C. Wienecke (see lot 730). There was no example of this medal in the Harmer Johnson Collection (Heritage Auctions, 18 November 2016).

730. Sport, Olympic Games, IX Olympiad, Amsterdam 1928, bronze participant's medal, unsigned (by J. C. Wienecke), naked male and female athletes hold the Olympic flame, rev. Nike above the stadium, 55.5mm. (GV.86.2), very fine £120-160

The recipient would seem to be a relative of the famous botanist William [Wilhelm] Hillebrand (1821-1886), who spent many years in Hawaii and Honolulu. The Royal Hawaiian Agricultural Society was established in 1850 to promote agricultural enterprise in Hawaii. The Society presented medals annually to the best in each category of a juried exhibition of Hawaiian agricultural products and the earlier 1850-dated medals were produced at the United States Mint, with the last minted in 1857. The medals were originally ordered by the Society through the agency of a Mr. Marshall of Massachusetts. At the Society's request, Marshall contacted James Ross Snowden, director of the Mint, who forwarded the request to the Department of the Treasury where approval was granted on the condition that the medals were to be made after regular Mint hours. The number of specimens either minted or presented is unknown.

776. Italy, Cardinal Antoine Perrenot de Granvelle (1516-1586), Bishop of Arras, 1538, Cardinal 1561, cast bronze medal [1571], by Giovanni V Melone (active Rome, 1570s), bearded bust l., wearing hooded cassock, rev. Granvelle presents Papal standard to Don John of Austria, IN HOC VINCES, 43mm. (Attwood 985; Arm.I, 265 12; Volt 558), very fine £200-300

De Granvelle was in Naples where he presented the Standard, which had been previously consecrated by Pope Pius V, to Don John, who had arrived in the city in August 1571. Don John was at Messina in September and then in command at the famous Battle of Lepanto on the 7th October, where the Ottomans under the command of Ali Pacha were defeated, losing all but 40 of their fleet of 300 ships.

777. Italy, Andrea Doria (1466-1560), Genoese Admiral and Condottiere, cast bronze medal, c.1541, by Leone Leoni (c.1509-1590), bust of Andrea Doria as Neptune to r., with trident at shoulder, ANDREAS DORIA, rev. galley rowed to r., in the sea below, two men (probably Doria and Leoni) in a rowing boat, from a rock, a fisherman casts his line, 41mm. (Attwood 5; Pollard 490; Bargello 712; Arm.I, 164, 9; Kress 431), probably a near- contemporary cast, very fine £200-250

As an Admiral of the Holy Roman Empire, Doria commanded several expeditions against the Turks and captured Corona and Patras. With Charles V he led the siege and capture of Tunis in 1535, however he was defeated by the Turks at Patras in 1538 and, again with Charles V, was involved in the ill-fated Algerian expedition.

Leone Leoni made the medal in 1541 in gratitude for his release from the Papal galleys, to which he had been sentenced for the attempted murder of a fellow craftsman, Pellegrino di Leuti, jeweller to Pope Paul III. It is generally assumed that Leoni depicted himself in the small boat on the reverse of this medal, rowing to freedom.

778. Italy, Vatican, Julius III (1487-1550-1555), Giovanni Maria Ciocchi del Monte, Jubilee of the Year 1550, cast bronze medal, possibly by Giovan Giacomo Bonzagi, tonsured bust right wearing embroidered stole, rev. the Holy Door, HAEC PORTA DOMINI MDL, 45mm. Scratched, extremely rare* £2500-3500

The famous 'Bronze Horseman' is the work of Étienne Maurice Falconet (1716–1791), who was invited to Russia by Catherine in 1766. The lengthy work was achieved with the help of his assistant Emelyan Khailov and his pupil and step-daughter, Marie-Anne Collot. It is believed that it is she who modelled the head. When it came to the inauguration by Catherine, on 7 August, 1782, Falconet had returned to France, however he was sent two specimens of this medal, one in gold and one silver. In the curious way of Russian medals, this same medal was struck in 8 varieties, in 5 sizes and involving 6 medallists. An example of the largest (80.5mm.) and extremely rare silver medal was recently sold in Monte Carlo by MDC Monnaies de Collection sarl, 29 October 2020, lot 1045 and realised €19,000)

788. Switzerland, André Hercule, Cardinal de Fleury (1653-1743), statesman, a pair of copper medals, 1736, by J. Dassier, facing bust, rev. serpents entwined around club of Hercules, attributes of Arts, Commerce and Science, HIS PACEM REDDIT ARMIS above, 54.5mm. (Eisler II, 96, 6; Pax 1011; BDML/514), both good very fine (2) £80-120

789. Switzerland, Basel, 400th Anniversary of joining the Swiss Confederacy, 1901, bronze plaque, by Hans Frei, two figures from 1501 greet each other, HIE BASEL HIE SCHWEIZER=BODEN, rev. diaphanous figure of Basel with floral garland and cherub, before cityscape and bridge, 81 x 59mm. (Martin 176a), in case of issue, extremely fine; Geneva, Conference Desarmement, bronze medal, 1932, by Maurice [Sarki] Sarkisoff (1882–1946), for Huguenin Frères, sword broken by olive branch, rev. sunburst, 50mm., in case 'Offert par Le Conseil Fédéral Suisse et les Autorités Genevoises', mint state (2) £70-100

Maurice Sarkisoff, sculptor and painter who signed himself (as on this medal), Sarki, was Russian-born in Tbilisi; later professor at the Fine Art Academy of Geneva.

790. Turkey, Abdul Hamid II (1876-1909), cupro-nickel Hejaz Railway medal AH.1318 (1900), toughra and locomotive within wreath, rev. Arabic inscription, 30mm. (NP.1118 cf), good very fine £120-150

791. USA/France, Louis XV (1710-1715-1774), the Régiment de la Calotte, bronze medal, by Joseph Charles Roettiers, Momus, God of Mirth, enthroned amid clouds, holding sceptre with jester's head, RIDERE REGNARE EST, rev. coat of arms, a shield emblazoned with the moon in three phases above a jester's head on a field of bees, a jester's cap with rat and pennant above, supported by monkeys in livery holding smoking cornucopiae, LUNA DUCE AUSPICE MOMO, 44.5mm. (Adams S-3; Betts pp. 66-70, note 3), pierced in outer rim, very fine, rare £100-150

*ex Baldwin's vault

See also Betts, 'Descriptive List of Medals Relating to John Law and the Mississippi System', Boston 1907.

792. USA, Battle of Germantown, 1777, a museum-quality bronze electrotype of the medal by J. Milton, GERMAN / TOWN / OCT 4. 1777, in three lines, within wreath, rev. panoramic view of the battle, a battery of cannon firing on Cliveden, 43mm. (Betts 556; Eimer 772; Stainton [BN], 1983] 6; Tancred 332), extremely fine £100-150

The battle took place during the American war and was a part of General George Washington's unsuccessful attempt to retake Philadelphia. Stainton confirms that the medal was commissioned by General Sir George Osborn, the Regiment's patron colonel from 1786 to 1818 and not, as is often reported, by Colonel Musgrave.

793. USA, Harvard University, Massachusetts, Delta Kappa Epsilon, silver Fraternity medal, named to J. C. Dodge, 'Class of '73', shield of arms and motto, rev. the Delta Kappa Epsilon initials, ΔKE ... A HARVARD, 42mm., small fixed suspension ring, extremely fine, scarce £150-250

*ex Baldwin's vault

The first Delta Kappa Epsilon Fraternity was founded at Yale in 1844, that at Harvard in 1852, as dated on the medal.

794. USA, Harvard University, Hasty Pudding Club, founded 1795, octagonal silver member's medal, 1885, named to 'Ezra P. Mills '85', Sphinx to l., above name engraved in oval cartouche CONCORDIA DISCORDS, rev. hands hold bowl and spoon over pudding pot, very fine and rare £100-150

The Hasty Pudding Club was founded on September 1, 1795, by Horace Binney (then aged 15) and is the oldest collegiate social club in America. It was established with the idea of bringing undergraduates together in friendship, conversation, and camaraderie. A Hasty Pudding is a form of porridge made with 'Indian' corn and two members had to provide a pot for each meeting. The medal's recipient was possibly Ezra P. Mills, born 1864, in Massachusetts.

795. USA, The World's Columbian Exposition (The Chicago World's Fair), 1892-1893, official bronze award medal, presented to Lucy Dobbings, by August St. Gaudens and C. E. Barber, Columbus steps ashore, rev. Fame and Victory with globe, atop a tablet which rests on the Santa Maria, named in small panel, 76mm., in velvet-lined aluminium case of issue (this with printed card 'World's Columbian Exposition Award Medal and Aluminium Case made by Scovill Manufacturing Company. Waterbury, Connecticut', choice, virtually mint state, together with an 'Official Ribbon World's Columbian Exposition Chicago 1893', the blue ribbon with printed details in gold, 'Premium Awarded Maps and Charts exhibited by W. & A. K. Johnston, Edinburgh – London', contained in original dark blue card holder, in choice condition and extremely rare (2) £150-200

796. USA, The World's Columbian Exposition (The Chicago World's Fair), 1892-1893, official bronze award medal, presented to Miss L. F. Stephen, by August St. Gaudens and C. E. Barber, Columbus steps ashore, rev. Fame and Victory with globe, atop a tablet which rests on the Santa Maria, named in small panel, 76mm., in velvet-lined aluminium case of issue, good extremely fine £80-120

797. USA, The World's Columbian Exposition (The Chicago World's Fair), 1892-1893, official bronze award medal, presented to Anderson, Anderson & Anderson, by August St. Gaudens and C. E. Barber, Columbus steps ashore, rev. Fame and Victory with globe, atop a tablet which rests on the Santa Maria, named in small panel, 76mm., in velvet-lined aluminium case of issue, good extremely fine £80-120

798. USA, Montana, Butte, the Parrot Mine, copper medal, 1896, view of the mine buildings with four tall chimneys, rev. a selection of tools, BUTTE MONTANA 1896 – MINERS TOOLS, 38mm. (HK.734B), virtually mint state with almost full redness, rare £80-120

The reverse shared with a medal of the Anaconda Mine, also in Butte. The Parrot mine eventually became the Parrot Silver & Copper Company. The mine worked the gangon-parrot lode - the richest vein of copper ever discovered in the continental United States. The lode is long worked out but the abandoned mine buildings remain.

MILITARIA

799. Crimea 1854-56, dress miniature, 1 clasp, Sebastopol, unnamed, with fixed scrolled suspender but ribbon and clasp as for regular medal, 24mm., deeply toned, extremely fine £80-120

800. Indian Mutiny 1857-59, 1 clasp, Defence of Lucknow (Serj<sup>t</sup>. W. Money, 32nd L.I.), deeply toned, good very fine £500-600

William Money: Roll records 'Later the Orderly Room Clerk'.

801. Egypt and Sudan Medal, 1882-89, dated reverse 1882, clasp, Tel-El-Kebir (Capt: F. S. Chapman. 1st B<sup>n</sup> Cam: Highrs:), deeply toned, obverse extremely fine, reverse virtually mint state £150-200

Captain F. S. Chapman served with the Cameron Highlanders in the Egyptian war of 1882 from the landing at Tsmilia, and at the battle of Tel-el-Kebir. He also received the Khedive's Star.
